Entry is via a boardwalk leading under a rainforest like canopy to your front door. Once inside you are greeted with generous free flowing living spaces complimented with ultra contemporary styling, attractive Birchwood timber flooring and superior finishes throughout.

The lower level consists of formal and informal living seamlessly flowing to a cascading deck which steps down the length of the home creating intimate outdoor areas off each room, superb ceaser stone kitchen with walk in pantry, guest bathroom and large laundry. Also located on this level is the king sized master suite which includes
