Entertaining will never be a problem in this property. Peacefully located away from the street front towards the rear of the block, with an enormous balcony attracting loads of afternoon sun, and a huge open plan lounge/dining gives this unit a great holiday feeling.

This recently tastefully renovated kitchen, located off the dining area provides modern taste combined with practicality, while both bedrooms are large enough for modern living with mirrored built in robes in the main.

Beautifully designed bathroom conveniently located between both bedrooms with elegant floor to ceiling tiles including separate bath and shower.

Consistent with the rest of the apartment is the spacious laundry positioned off the kitchen, while the garage is of
