In a highly sought after position only footsteps from the Esplanade and Shelly Beach, this well presented one bedroom apartment and would make a fabulous first home or investment.

Located on the top floor towards the rear of a well maintained security block it is bathed in natural light from its perfect north facing aspect and features a spacious and practical layout. The living area flows out through glass sliding doors to large, private and sunny balcony with ocean glimpses, and there is also a good sized bedroom with ensuite style bathroom and neatly presented original kitchen.
